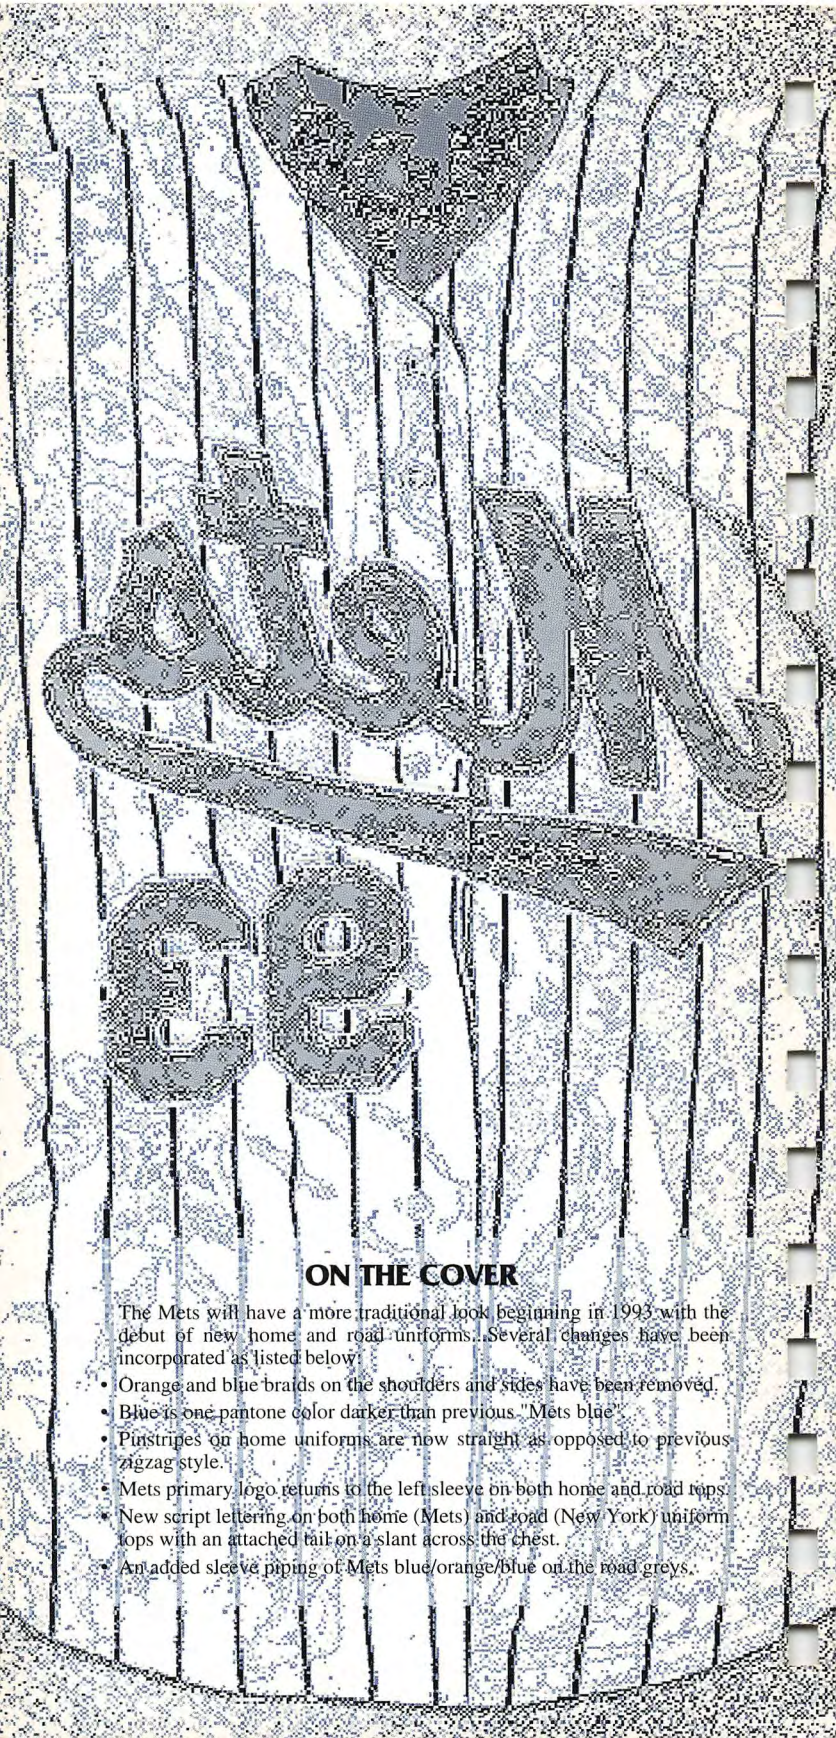
INFORMATION GUIDE



ON THE COVER

The Mets will have a more traditional look beginning in 1993 with the debut of new home and road uniforms. Several changes have been incorporated as listed below:

- Orange and blue braids on the shoulders and sides have been removed.
- Blue is one pantone color darker than previous "Mets blue".
- Pinstripes on home uniforms are now straight as opposed to previous zigzag style.
- Mets primary logo returns to the left sleeve on both home and road tops.
- New script lettering on both home (Mets) and road (New York) uniform tops with an attached tail on a slant across the chest.
- An added sleeve piping of Mets blue/orange/blue on the road greys.

Introducing in the On-Deck Circle...

Twenty-four players made their Mets debuts in 1992, the most since the 1967 club had 35 newcomers...The list of players making their Met debuts in 1992 were: Bobby Bonilla, DJ Dozier, Dave Gallagher, Rodney McCray, Eddie Murray, Junior Noboa, Bill Pecota, Willie Randolph, Dick Schofield, Chico Walker, Paul Gibson, Bret Saberhagen, Mark Dewey, Eric Hillman, Lee Guetterman, Tom Filer, Pat Howell, Kevin Bass, Steve Springer, Barry Jones, Mike Birkbeck, Jeff Kent, Ryan Thompson and Joe Vitko.

And The Name is...

"The name is METS . . . just plain Mets."

Thus began a press release dated May 8, 1961, announcing the name of the brand-new National League expansion team in the Big Apple.

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers . . . as well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

FRONT OFFICE

NELSON DOUBLEDAY

Chairman of the Board

- The 59-year-old resident of Florida is the great-nephew of the legendary founder of the game of baseball, Abner Doubleday.

The Mets Logo

The circular Mets logo, designed by sports cartoonist Ray Gatto and unveiled on November 16, 1961, has gone unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

Tom McKenna – Trainer Emeritus

Tom McKenna begins his 13th season as the Mets' Trainer Emeritus in 1993. Tom served the Mets as head trainer from 1970—when he replaced original Mets trainer Gus Mauch—through the 1980 campaign.

Based in St. Petersburg, FL, Tom assists Mets trainers Steve Garland and Sam McCrary during spring training, and is also on hand during the Florida Instructional League season in the fall. He also serves as an advisor for all trainers throughout the Mets' system, and as the head trainer during Mets Ulti-Met Week each winter.

Tom's first baseball job was as trainer for Jersey City of the International League in 1948. He spent the next 13 seasons with Minneapolis of the American Association before being named trainer of the expansion Washington Senators in 1961. He joined the Mets in 1970.

- Was placed on the disabled list on March 14, retroactive to March 12 with the broken left wrist.

- Had a 1-0 record and a combined 0.73 ERA (two earned runs in 24.2 innings) in five rehab starts, earning his only win in his last appearance vs. Rochester, with Tidewater, on July 14.
- Activated from the disabled list on July 18.
- Made his first start for the Mets on July 19 vs. the Dodgers, allowing just a Darryl Strawberry solo homer in six innings with six strikeouts...Not involved in the Mets' 6-2 win.
- His only win came against the Cardinals in the second game of an August 21 doubleheader at Shea...In seven innings, he permitted four hits, with no walks and a season-high nine strikeouts.
- Began to be troubled by left knee problems at the end of August.
- His last start of the year was August 26 in Houston...Had a no-decision in the Mets' 6-4 win in 10 innings...Gave up three hits, two runs, earned, with no walks and six strikeouts in six innings.
- On September 7 at Roosevelt Hospital in New York City, he underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left knee...The surgery was performed by Dr. James Parkes, the Mets' Team Physician...There was a tear in cartilage under his left knee cap and a tear in the front part of the medial cartilage.

1990

- Led the NL in opponents' batting avg. against with .200 mark (130x650).
- Struck out 9.1 batters per nine innings, second in the NL behind teammate David Cone (9.9).
- Struck out 12 batters twice, against the Giants in a 12-2 win at Shea on August 30 and vs. the Phillies in a 4-1 loss at home, September 14.

1989

- Finished third in the NL with 198 strikeouts...Jose DeLeon was first with 201 strikeouts, while Tim Belcher was second with 200.
- Set a career high with six complete games.
- Pitched his fourth career two-hitter to beat the Cardinals, 6-1, in St. Louis on Sept. 21... It was the low-hit game for a Mets' pitcher in 1989.
- Also in the game against the Cardinals, he hit his first career homer, a solo shot against Dan Quisenberry in the ninth inning...Went 3-for-4 in the game.
- Set a Mets' club record for strikeouts by a lefthander, fanning 16 in a 3-2 loss in Atlanta on July 14...The 16 strikeouts were also the most by a major league pitcher in 1989...Pitched a complete game and lost when Lonnie Smith led off the ninth inning with a homer...Jerry Koosman had 15 strikeouts in 10 innings vs. the Padres on May 28, 1969 for the old Mets southpaw record.
- Hurled back-to-back complete games for the first time in his career when he beat the Reds, 7-1, on July 7 and lost to the Braves, 3-2, on July 14...Scored two straight complete game victories for the first time when he picked up successive triumphs against the Cardinals on September 21 and the Phillies on Sept. 26.

Longest No-Hit Bids

No Mets pitcher has thrown a no-hitter in the 31 years of the franchise's history. However, 1991 Hall of Fame inductee Tom Seaver took a no-hitter into the ninth inning a total of three times in his Mets career:

Tom Seaver-September 24, 1975, at Chicago, ND in a 1-0 loss
(Wallis single—two outs)

Tom Seaver-July 4, 1972, vs. San Diego, won 2-0 (Lee single—one out)

Tom Seaver-July 9, 1969, vs. Chicago, won 4-0
(Qualls single—one out to break perfect game bid)

Bret Saberhagen tossed a no-hitter while a member of the Kansas City Royals vs. the Chicago White Sox on August 26, 1991.

Listed below is the longest no-hit bid by other current Mets starting pitchers:

Fernandez-July 22, 1985 vs. Cincinnati (6.0 IP, Concepcion homer)

Gooden-June 5, 1988 vs. Chicago (7.0 IP, Berryhill single)

Schourek-September 10, 1991 vs. Montreal (4.2 IP, Williams single)

Tanana-April 26, 1975 vs. Oakland (5.1 IP)

Young-September 22, 1991 vs. St. Louis (4.1 IP, Jose triple)

No-Hitters vs. Mets

June 30, 1962—Sandy Koufax (Los Angeles), 5-0.

June 21, 1964 (1st game)—Jim Bunning (Phil.), 6-0 Perfect Game.

June 14, 1965—Jim Maloney (Cincinnati), lost 1-0;
Pitched 10 innings of no-hit ball; Mets won in 11th.

September 20, 1969—Bob Moose (Pittsburgh), 4-0.

October 2, 1972—Bill Stoneman (Montreal), 7-0.

August 24, 1975 (2nd game)—Ed Halicki (San Francisco), 6-0.

1992

- Worked six-or-more innings in 25 of his 31 starts.
- Also allowed three-or-less runs in 23 of those 31 starts.
- Was on the disabled list from July 18 (retroactive to July 17) to August 8 with inflammation of his right shoulder.
- The Mets scored 11 runs with Dwight on the mound in his 13 losses.
- Awarded The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the top hitting pitcher in the National League...Became the first Met pitcher to win the title.
- Led all National League pitchers with 50-or-more at bats in batting average (.264, 19x72) and in RBI (nine)...Fell one short of Tom Seaver's club record of 10 RBI for pitchers set in 1970.
- Blasted his fifth career homer against Bryan Hickerson in San Francisco on August 24...Seaver has the team record of six homers.
- Ranks second among Mets pitchers all-time with 300-or-more at bats with a .1975 average...Sid Fernandez is first at .1982.
- Has batted .267 (27x101) at Shea since 1990.
- Ended the season on a high note, going 2-0 with a no-decision and two complete games in his last three starts.
- Set back the Cardinals, 3-2 in St.Louis on September 23...In nine innings, he gave up six hits, two runs earned, with one walk and five strikeouts.
- Was a 2-1 victor over the Pirates in his last outing of the year, October 3 at Shea...Permitted one run in nine innings on four hits with one walk and three strikeouts.
- Became the second Mets' pitcher to record a pinch-hit single (David Cone, August 1, 1990) with a hit against the Pirates' Steve Cooke in the 16th inning of a 4-2 loss at home on August 10.
- Also popped out as a pinch-hitter in the first game of an August 31 doubleheader vs. the Braves at Shea.
- Allowed a career-high 12 hits in a Sept. 28 start vs. the Phillies (eight innings).
- His 142 triumphs rank him second behind Seaver (198) on the Mets' All-Time Victory List.
- Also is third on the Mets' career list in ERA (2.99), strikeouts (1,686), innings pitched (1,919.2) and starts (267) and is fourth with 21 shutouts and 60 complete games.
- Has a career .683 winning percentage (142-66), ranking fourth on the all-time list and tops among National League pitchers.
- Boasts a lifetime mark of 81-27 (.750) at Shea with a 2.74 ERA (300 earned runs in 985.1 innings).

IN THE MAJORS

- His season came to an end on September 7 when he underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder...The procedure was performed by Dr. James Parkes, the Mets' Team Physician...A small tear of the Glenoid Labrum, which is the cartilage in the shoulder, was repaired and loose fragments were removed from the area...Also a partial tear of the rotator cuff of the shoulder was repaired.

- His last start was a 6-0 win over the Cardinals at Shea on August 22... Went five innings and gave up three hits with five walks and five strikeouts... Was officially placed on the DL with inflammation of the right shoulder on September 3, retroactive to August 24.
- Recorded his 1,500th career strikeout (Tim Teufel) vs. San Diego on July 11.
- Became the second youngest pitcher in baseball history to record 1,500 strikeouts at age 26...Bert Blyleven was 25 in 1976 when he struck out number 1,500.
- Stole his first career base (second base) vs. Montreal on April 13.
- Hit his fourth career homer, a solo shot, in the eighth inning against Randy St. Claire in Atlanta on June 20.
- Struck out a season-high 14 vs. Montreal on April 13 at Shea, the 45th 10-strikeout game of his career.
- Signed a four-year contract on April 1.

1990

- Won eight of his last nine decisions, 16 of his last 18 and 18 of his last 22 (over 28 starts).
- After a 5-4 loss to Philadelphia June 2, Gooden was 3-5 with a 4.37 ERA...Had never been below .500 before during his entire major league career...Was 16-2 with a 3.60 ERA from then through the end of the season.
- Named the National League Pitcher of the Month for September... For the month, he was 5-0 with a 1.93 ERA with 44 strikeouts in 46.1 innings.
- Posted seven wins in seven consecutive starts, from June 12-July 17, equaling his career-high set twice previously (August 11-September 12, 1984 and July 9-August 10, 1985).

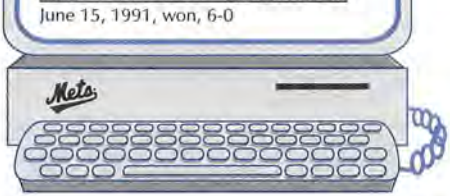
LAST CG SHUTOUT—VS. HOUSTON
June 15, 1991, won, 6-0



- The seven wins in seven straight starts began an eight game winning streak from June 12-July 19, which was snapped with his loss to the Cardinals, August 4... Then reeled off eight straight wins again, August 14-September 28 (over 10 starts).
- Hurled the fifth two-hitter of his career and his 20th career shutout, defeating Philadelphia, 3-0, June 23 at Shea...Walked two and struck out seven.
- Hit his third career homer on May 27 vs. San Diego pitcher Ed Whitson.
- When Doc defeated the Dodgers on May 11 at Shea, he struck out 15 batters in seven innings of work, one short of his career-high.
- Recorded his second career triple in the game (with the bases loaded in a five-run third)...His four RBI tied his career-high (set September 21, 1985 vs. Pittsburgh), and tied the Mets club mark for RBI in a game by a pitcher.

- Left his July 1 start in Cincinnati after two innings with discomfort in his right shoulder.
- The injury would be diagnosed as a small tear in the back of the shoulder and it would force him to miss nearly all of the year.

- Placed on the 21-day disabled list on July 2...Underwent a series of MRI (Magnetic Resonance Imaging) examinations over the next three months... Restored to the active roster on September 2.
- Performed for the first time when he hurled three innings of relief in Philadelphia on September 13...It was Doc's first regular season relief appearance after 175 straight starts...Had appeared in relief in Game Seven of the 1988 League Championship Series vs. the Dodgers in Los Angeles.
- Picked up his first professional save on September 19 in Chicago...Hurled four innings to protect Bob Ojeda's 5-2 win over the Cubs at Wrigley...Allowed three hits, one run (earned) with one walk and two strikeouts.
- Defeated Montreal, 5-3, on June 19 at Shea to become the third youngest pitcher in the modern era to win 100 games ... Doc was 24 years, seven months and three days old on the date of his 100th win...Bob Feller was the youngest, recording his 100th win on July 14, 1941 at 22 years, eight months and 11 days...The second youngest was Frank "Noodles" Hahn, who won his 100th on July 2, 1903 at 24 years, two months and four days.
- At the date of his 100th win, Dwight also had the second fewest losses at the 100-win mark, among all pitchers to win 100-plus games...Doc had a 100-37 career mark after June 19, behind only Whitey Ford, who had just 36 losses at 100 wins.

- On May 31 vs. the Dodgers, he went more than nine innings in a game (9.1) for the second time in his career and the first time in the regular season...Hurled 10 innings against the Astros in the fifth game of the 1986 League Championship Series, October 14 at Shea.
- Hurled a complete game to set back the Cubs, 11-3, at Shea on June 5... For the second time in his career, he took a no-hitter into the eighth inning... Damon Berryhill broke up the no-hitter with a leadoff single in the eighth.
- Also in the game, he hit his second career homer, a two-run shot against Bill Landrum in the seventh inning.
- Was the starting pitcher for the National League in the All-Star Game on July 12 in Cincinnati...Went three innings and allowed three hits, one run, earned, with a walk and one strikeout...Gave up a homer to Terry Steinbach... Was the loser in the NL's 2-1 defeat.
- Had nine RBI for the year to tie Tim Leary of the Dodgers and Sid Fernandez for the NL lead among pitchers.
- His 20 strikeouts against the Dodgers set a then League Championship Series record.
- Signed a three-year contract on February 8, 1989.

1987

- Captured his first game for the Mets in his initial start on June 5 against the Pirates at Shea...Before a sellout crowd of 51,402, he won, 5-1.
- Prior to his activation from the disabled list on June 5, he made five starts in the minors, four for Tidewater of the International League and one for Lynchburg of the Carolina League.

1986

- Became the first pitcher in major league history to strike out 200-or-more in each of his first three seasons when he beat the Expos, 8-2, at Montreal in his season finale on October 2.
- Was the starting pitcher in the All-Star Game for the National League in Houston on July 15.
- Went all the way to defeat the Pirates, 4-2, in the season's opener on April 8 in Pittsburgh...Became the first Met starter to pitch a complete game on Opening Day since Jerry Koosman in 1978.
- Tied a career-high by striking out six consecutive batters in a 3-1 victory over the Expos on August 1 at home.
- Hurled the Mets to the National League East pennant with a title-clinching 4-2 victory over the Cubs at Shea on September 17.
- In the League Championship Series against Houston, he went 10 innings and had a no-decision in the Mets' 2-1, 12- inning win in Game Five at Shea...In the 10 innings, he allowed one run and nine hits with two walks and four strikeouts...It marked the first time he had ever gone more than nine innings in a game and the first time for a Met since Mike Torrez hurled 11 innings against Pittsburgh on July 31, 1983...Ten innings also tied an NLCS record set by Houston's Joe Niekro in 1980.

- Became the youngest pitcher to ever capture the Cy Young Award at age 20; previous youngest winner was the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela who was 21 in 1981.
- Also became the ninth pitcher in history to capture the Cy Young Award unanimously...The other unanimous winners were Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax (1963, 1965 and 1966), Detroit's Denny McLain (1968), St. Louis' Bob Gibson (1968), Philadelphia's Steve Carlton (1977), the Yankees' Ron Guidry (1978) and the Cubs' Rick Sutcliffe (1984).
- Dwight also joined Tom Seaver (1969, 1973 and 1975) as the only two Mets pitchers to win a Cy Young Award...Finished fourth in the balloting for the National League's Most Valuable Player award, won by St. Louis' Willie McGee with 280 points...Dwight had 162 points...Also selected as The Sporting News' NL Pitcher of the Year.
- Led the majors in wins (24), strikeouts (268) and ERA (1.53)...Became the first pitcher to lead the majors in the "Triple Crown" of pitching categories since Koufax, who accomplished the feat in 1963, 1965 and 1966...His 1.53 ERA was the lowest in the majors since Gibson won the ERA title with a 1.12 mark in 1968.
- Set a Mets' club record with his 1.53 ERA...The old mark was 1.76 by Seaver in 1971...Set another club record with eight shutouts...Broke the mark of seven set by Jerry Koosman in 1968 and Jon Matlack in 1974.

• On disabled list, July 2-Sept. 2, 1989, with inflammation in right shoulder.
• On disabled list, September 3-October 7, 1991 with inflammation of his right shoulder.
• On disabled list, July 18, retro to July 17-August 8, 1992 with inflammation of his right shoulder.
Mets

- Joined Herb Score as the only pitchers in baseball history to fan 200-or-more batters in both of their first two seasons...Score had 245 in 1955 and 263 in 1956 for Cleveland.
- Led the NL with 16 complete games, the most for a Met since Koosman had 17 in 1976.
- Had 21 hits to establish a record for Mets pitchers...The old mark was 18 by Seaver in 1971. . . Belted his first major league home run on September 21 off Pittsburgh's Rick Rhoden.
- Became the fifth pitcher to win both the National League Rookie of the Year and Cy Young Awards.
- Became the youngest pitcher of the modern era to start an Opening Day game... At 20 years, four months and 24 days, he was 15 days younger than Valenzuela, when Fernando started for the Dodgers on Opening Day, 1981... The all- time youngest Opening Day pitcher is John Montgomery Ward, who was 19 for the Providence Grays in 1889.
- Dwight's 14-game winning streak spanned 18 starts, from May 30-August 25...Over the span, Dwight was 14-0 with four no-decisions and a 1.72 ERA (27 earned runs, 141.1 innings)...The win streak included 10 complete games and four shutouts...It was the longest win streak in the NL since Sutcliffe also had a 14-game win streak for the Cubs in 1984.
- Notched his third career 16-strikeout game en route to a 3-0 shutout over the Giants at Shea on August 20...Allowed seven hits and walked three.
- Won his 20th game of the season on August 25, defeating the Padres at Shea, 9-3... In winning his 20th game in his 28th start, Dwight reached the milestone earlier than any pitcher in Mets history...Seaver was the previous earliest, winning his 20th in 1975 in his 30th start (September 1).

- Had a memorable game when he defeated the Pirates at Shea, 12-1, on September 21. . . Went 3-for-4 at the plate with four RBI, becoming the first Mets pitcher to drive in four runs since Walt Terrell did it against Chicago on August 6, 1983...Belted his first career home run, a three-run shot off Rick Rhoden in the first inning...It was the first homer for a Met pitcher since Tim Leary hit one off Phil.'s Steve Carlton on April 20, 1984; and the first at Shea since Koosman homered off the Giants' John Montefusco on May 17, 1977.
- Named Male Athlete of the Year for 1985 by The Associated Press... Also named 1985 New York Athlete of the Year by SportsChannel.

- Named the National League Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America...Succeeded teammate Darryl Strawberry who was the NL Rookie of the Year in 1983.
- Received 23 of a possible 24 first place votes to finish with 118 points to 67 for runner-up Juan Samuel of the Phillies...The youngest player to ever win the award...Led the major leagues with 276 strikeouts, thus becoming the first-teenaged rookie ever to lead either the American or National League in strikeouts.
- Set a major league record for rookies with his 276 strikeouts...The previous major league mark was 245 set by Cleveland's Herb Score in 1955 and the old National League record was 227 by Philadelphia's Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1911. . . Before Dwight, the Mets' rookie strikeout record was 178 by Jerry Koosman in 1968...Established a major league record with an average of 11.39 strikeouts per nine innings...The previous mark was 10.71 by Cleveland's Sam McDowell in 1965.
- Shared the 1984 major league high (with Mike Witt of California) with 16 strikeouts in a game...Dwight struck out 16 in a game in successive starts against Pittsburgh on September 12 at Shea and at Philadelphia on September 17.
- Set a Mets' rookie record with 16 strikeouts in a game and fell just two shy of the all-time major league mark for rookie strikeouts in a game (18 by Montreal's Bill Gullickson in 1980).
- Broke the National League record for strikeouts in two consecutive games (32)... Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers had 31 in two straight games in 1959...The 32 strikeouts also tied the major league mark for most strikeouts in two consecutive games...Luis Tiant had 32 strikeouts in two straight games for the Indians in 1968, while Nolan Ryan of the Angels had 32 in two straight games in 1974.
- Set a major league record with 43 strikeouts in three consecutive nine inning games: September 7, Chicago (11); September 12, Pittsburgh (16) and September 17, Philadelphia (16).
- The 43 strikeouts in three games fell four short of the major league record for most strikeouts in three consecutive games, including extra inning games...Gooden worked 26 innings to chalk up his 43 strikeouts...Ryan had 47 strikeouts in three straight games (27.1 innings) in 1974.

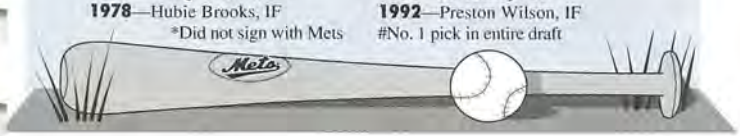
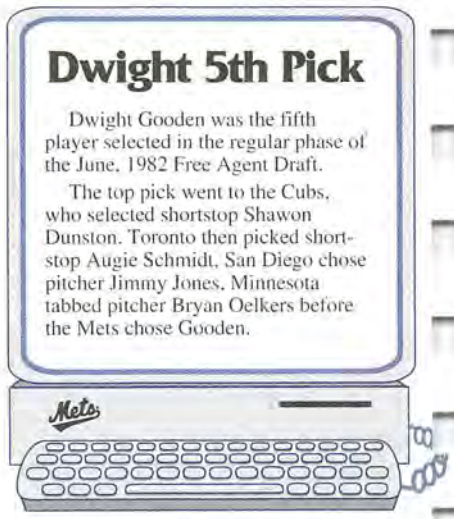
#No. 1 pick in entire draft



- Established a Mets record with 15 10-plus strikeout games, a major league high for 1984 (the old club mark was 13 by Tom Seaver in 1971)...Also set a club standard with five consecutive 10-plus strikeout games...Seaver had three straight in both 1970 and 1971.
- Was second in the major leagues with a 2.60 ERA...Alejandro Pena of the Dodgers led with 2.48 ERA.
- Established a Mets club mark for victories in a season by a rookie righthander with his 17-9 mark...The old mark for a Mets' rookie righthander was 16 victories by Seaver in 1967, while the overall rookie mark is 19 wins by Jerry Koosman in 1968.
- Became the youngest player to be selected to the All-Star Game... Struck out the side, Lance Parrish, Chet Lemon and Alvin Davis, in the first inning he worked.



Dwight 5th Pick
Dwight Gooden was the fifth player selected in the regular phase of the June, 1982 Free Agent Draft.
The top pick went to the Cubs, who selected shortstop Shawon Dunston. Toronto then picked shortstop Augie Schmidt, San Diego chose pitcher Jimmy Jones, Minnesota tabbed pitcher Bryan Oelkers before the Mets chose Gooden.
Mets

- Was named the National League Rookie Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News and was also picked to the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star team.
- Became the ninth teenager to play for the Mets, joining Ed Kranepool, Jim Bethke, Greg Goossen, Jerry Hinsley, Nolan Ryan, Tim Foli, Kevin Collins and Jose Oquendo.
- On April 7, Dwight made his major league debut with a start at Houston... Became the third youngest Met pitcher in history (behind Bethke and Hinsley)... Defeated the Astros, 3-2...In five innings, he allowed one earned run on three hits with two walks and five strikeouts.
- Carried a no-hitter into the eighth inning at Pittsburgh, June 6... Doug Frobel led off the inning with a single...Wound up with a no decision in a 2-1, 13-inning Mets' victory.
- On August 27, Dwight ran his strikeouts to 214 with his 11th double-figure game of the year, beating the Dodgers, 5-1, at Shea...Broke the major league record for strikeouts by a teenaged rookie (206) set by Cincinnati's Gary Nolan in 1967.
- Shattered Alexander's National League record for rookie strikeouts (227) when he fanned 11 to increase his total to 235 in a 10-0, one-hit victory over the Cubs on September 7 at home...The only hit that Dwight allowed was a fifth- inning single to Moreland... It was the 14th one-hitter in Mets history.
- Then on September 12, he topped Score's 1955 rookie record of 245 by fanning 16 Pirates in a 2-0 shutout.
- Became the first Mets' pitcher to throw back-to-back shutouts since Pat Zachry in 1980...He also became the first Mets rookie to have more than two shutouts in a year since Jon Matlack's four in 1972.

IN THE MINORS

- Named the Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and the Most Valuable Pitcher in the Carolina League. 1983
- With Lynchburg, he led the Carolina League in victories, ERA, shutouts and strikeouts...His 300 strikeouts established a league record, breaking the old mark of 275 set by Burlington's Ken Deal in 1947.
- Had three 15-strikeout games, one 16-strikeout contest and one 17-strikeout game for Lynchburg.

- Reeled off a 15-game winning streak, May 30-August 23.
- Pitched Tidewater to the Triple-A World Series title.

BACKGROUND

- Dwight Eugene Gooden was born in Tampa, FL.
- Graduated from Hillsborough High School in 1982...Compiled a 14-4 record over two years and had 130 strikeouts in 74 innings in his senior year.
- His nephew, Gary Sheffield, won the National League Batting title with the San Diego Padres in 1992.
- An active volunteer for the National Kidney Foundation of America.
- A video highlight tape of Gooden's career, "Doc-The Video," premiered in 1991 while an instructional video with Dwight and Mets pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre came out this past November...Both are available for purchase by mail through the New York Mets.

1992

- Hindered by a left shoulder ailment and injuries to both knees.
- His season officially ended on August 2 after he was diagnosed with a fractured right wrist, suffered in Philadelphia on July 28.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 25 in New York at The Hospital for Special Surgery to repair his left shoulder while also having both of his knees cleaned (piece of degenerated tendon removed from left knee and right knee scoped to repair small meniscal cartilage tear)...The surgery was performed by Dr. David Altchek, the Mets Team Physician...His wrist was placed in a cast but no surgery was needed.
- Stole bases in his first five games of the year, the longest stolen base streak of his career...Recorded 22 thefts in his 100 games.
- Tied his career high with five RBI at Montreal on April 19...It was his second five-RBI game in the majors (Sept. 8, 1988).
- Played in his 1,000th game with the Mets on April 25.
- Hit his 200th career homer on April 26 in Philadelphia (Andy Ashby).
- Recorded his 200th career stolen base on May 3 in Atlanta to become the 16th player in baseball history with 200 homers and steals...Six active players (Andre Dawson, Ryne Sandberg, Darryl Strawberry, Robin Yount and Dave Winfield) are in club.
- Had a seven-game hitting streak from May 30-June 7 and hit safely in six straight games from July 7-12.
- Batted .277 (33x119) on artificial turf with five homers.
- Played all 98 of his defensive games in the outfield, including his first 79 starts of the year in centerfield (thru July 9)...Appeared 16 games in leftfield, 83 games in center, and one game in rightfield.
- Ended the year ranked second on the Mets career list in homers (185), runs scored (595), doubles (206) and steals (196), third in RBI (603) and total bases (1,734), and seventh in games played (1,082), hits (941) and at-bats (3,753).

- Put together the best single season power production numbers in Mets history, breaking the franchise record with 117 RBI, while tieing the club season mark with 108 runs scored and finishing third on the season chart with 38 homers.
- Led the National League in both homers and RBI, becoming the third Met batter (Dave Kingman, 1982 & Darryl Strawberry, 1988) to lead the league in homers and the first to ever lead the league in RBI.
- Also led the NL with 15 sacrifice flies and 76 extra-base hits.
- The 15 sacrifice flies tied the Mets season mark (Gary Carter, 1986)... The 76 extra-base hits tied for second-best all-time on the Mets list.
- Became the first switch-hitter to lead the National League in RBI while joining Ripper Collins (St. Louis, 1934) as the only switch-hitters to lead the NL in homers...His 38 homers broke his own NL season record for homers by a switch-hitter.

- Joined the 30-30 club for the third time in his career, stealing his 30th base of the year on October 1 in Pittsburgh...Has now reached the 30-30 mark in homers and steals in three different seasons (also in 1987 and 1989), second only to Bobby Bonds (five times)...Willie Mays, Barry Bonds and Ron Gant have each hit 30-30 twice.
- Besides leading the NL in four offensive categories, Johnson also ranked second in runs, third with 302 total bases, tied for seventh in doubles, second with a .535 slugging percentage and ninth in walks.
- Tied the Mets career record for grand slams with his fifth bases loaded homer with New York on June 18 vs. Cincinnati (Tom Browning)...It was his sixth career grand slam (he also hit one with Detroit), but his first as a righthanded batter...Johnson is now the only Met in club history to hit grand slams from both sides of the plate.
- Recorded a pair of multi-homer games, with two homers at Cincinnati on August 31 and two homers vs. Houston on September 4.
- Joined Lee Mazzilli (September 3, 1978 at Los Angeles) as the only Mets to hit a homer from both sides of the plate in the same game in that August 31 game.
- Named NL Player of the Month in September after hitting .296 (29x98) with 10 homers, 28 RBI and 10 steals.
- Named MetLife Met of the Month in May and July and the MetLife Met of the Year.
- Named to his second All-Star Game, going 0 for 2 in the game in Toronto on July 9.
- Had an 11-game hitting streak from June 30-July 13 in which he batted .436 (17x39) with four homers and 11 RBI... The streak was one shy of his career-best and the longest in his Mets career.
- Became the Mets all-time leader in games played at 3B with his 710th game at third on June 26 vs. Montreal, passing Wayne Garrett (709 games)...Finished the year with a Mets career total of 768 games at third.
- Appeared in 104 games at third base (99 starts), 28 games at shortstop (25 starts) and 30 starts in rightfield.
- Moved to the outfield on September 3 and started the final 30 games of the year in rightfield.
- Recorded his 1,000th major league base hit, a single off Chicago pitcher Greg Maddux on September 18.
- Named to the National League Silver Slugger Team.
- Also named as the SportsChannel's Leukemia Society Man of the Year for the second time.

1992

- Led Mets in games, at-bats, runs scored, hits, doubles, and RBI while tieing for the club lead in base-on-balls (66).
- Tied for seventh in the NL in doubles, equaling his career-best (1985).
- The 37 doubles also tied the third-highest season total in Mets history.
- Also deadlocked for seventh in the league in RBI, posting more than 75 RBI for the 16th straight season...Became the first player in baseball history to drive in more than 75 runs in his first 16 years in the majors and just the second ever to perform the feat (Hank Aaron, 19 years, 1955-73).
- Hit two grand slams during the year (June 2 vs. San Francisco and September 4 at Cincinnati) to tie for the league lead...Now has hit 17 career grand slams, tieing for third all-time with Jimmie Foxx and Ted Williams, and just one grand slam behind Willie McCovey for second all-time.
- Had the National League's top average with the bases loaded (.667, 10x15) with the two homers and 27 RBI...Now batting .429 (81x189) with 247 RBI lifetime with the bases loaded.
- Played in over 150 games for the sixth straight season and the 14th time in his career...Only Pete Rose (17 years) and Hall of Famer's Hank Aaron and Brooks Robinson (14 years apiece) have played in as many games as often... Has now missed just 81 of 2,459 total games in his 16-year career (has played in 96.7% of team's games).
- Ended the year with 414 career homers and 1,562 lifetime RBI, tieing him for 22nd (with Darrell Evans) and ranking 26th all-time, respectively, in the two categories.
- Ranks second among active players in HR & RBI (Dave Winfield, 432 HR & 1,710 RBI) and fourth with 2,646 hits.
- Had two RBI versus Pittsburgh on June 6 to move past Mickey Mantle as baseball's all-time leading RBI producer among switch-hitters.
- Blasted his 400th career home run on May 3 in Atlanta against Braves pitcher Marvin Freeman.
- Went the whole season without having a hitless streak of more than two games.
- Was named the MetLife Met of the Year as well as winning monthly MetLife honors in September (.300, 30x100, 3 HR, 19 RBI) and May (.264, 24x91, 4 HR, 12 RBI).
- Ended the year with 2,214 career games played at first base, just 23 games behind James Vernon (1939-59) for the longest service at first base since 1900.
- Also broke former Met Keith Hernandez' major league record for assists by a first baseman (1,682) during the season and extended the new mark to 1,717 career assists.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on both ankles at The Hospital for Special Surgery on Monday, December 7...Surgery was performed by Mets Team Physicians Dr. David Altchek and Dr. David Dines.

IN THE MAJORS

- Posted his best RBI season since 1985, driving in 96 runs, the 11th-highest total in the National League. 1991
- Finished second on the Dodgers in both RBI and home runs (19) to ex-Met Darryl Strawberry (28 homers, 99 RBI).
- Tied for the L.A. team lead for games played.
- Hit safely in 10 straight games from August 27-September 7, hitting .417 (15-for-36) during the streak with four homers and 10 RBI.
- Selected to the All-Star Game for the eighth time in his career, his first appearance for the National League...Was 0-for-1 in the game in Toronto.
- Recorded his 8,000th career at-bat on April 10 in Atlanta.
- Collected his 2,500th career base hit on September 30 vs. S.D. pitcher Dennis Rasmussen.
- Was 2-for-3 as a pinch-hitter for the Dodgers, including a three-run pinch-hit homer vs. St. Louis on September 4.
- Played an inning at third base at Philadelphia on July 15, his sixth career appearance at the hot corner.

- Batted a career-high .330, finishing second in the National League to Willie McGee's .335 mark...McGee was traded from St. Louis to Oakland in August and finished the year with a combined .324 average, making Murray's season average the highest in baseball. 1990
- The .330 average was the fourth-highest mark by a Los Angeles Dodger batter and the best mark ever by a Los Angeles switch-hitter.
- Tied for the National League lead with 58 multi-hit games and 21 intentional walks... Finished third with a .414 on-base percentage, sixth in hits and walks, seventh in total bases, tied for eighth in runs scored, eighth with a .520 slugging percentage and tied for ninth in RBI.
- Won his third career Silver Slugger Award.
- Named to The Sporting News NL All-Star Team and to the UPI NL All-Star Team.

Mets

1988

- Led the Baltimore Orioles in home runs, RBI and average, marking the fifth time he led the O's in those three categories in the same season.
- It also marked the sixth overall time he led Baltimore in homers, his ninth club leadership in RBI and the seventh season to lead the O's in average.
- Tied for fourth in the American League in homers and tied for ninth with 286 total bases.
- Played in every game for the fourth time in his career.
- Ended his Baltimore career as club all-time leader with 333 homers and second all-time with 1,190 RBI and 2,021 base hits.

1987

- Set an all-time Baltimore club record with his 304th career HR on September 12 at Boston (Bruce Hurst), surpassing the old club mark held by Boog Powell.
- Became the first player in baseball history to hit homers from each side of the plate in consecutive games, connecting on May 8 and 9 at old Comiskey Park.
- Had a 15-game hitting streak from September 7-22.

1986

- Missed a career-high 25 games when a pulled left hamstring sidelined him for a month from early July to early August...Placed on the disabled list from July 10-August 7 for the first time in his professional career.
- Still led the Orioles in batting for a record sixth time and RBI for the seventh year in a row.
- Ranked fourth in the AL with a .396 on-base percentage.
- Had a pair of two-homer games vs. Boston on June 27 (both off Roger Clemens) and at Milwaukee on September 25 (both off Ted Higuera).
- Selected to appear in his sixth consecutive All-Star Game (seventh overall) but did not play in the game in Houston.

1985

- Drove in a career-high 124 RBI to finish second in the American League behind New York's Don Mattingly (145).
- Named the Orioles' MVP for a record sixth time.
- Finished 10th in the AL in batting average, sixth in homers, third in runs scored, and fifth in total bases and extra-base hits.

- Tied three club records on August 26 in California by slamming three homers, driving in nine RBI, and recording 13 total bases...Hit a three-run homer in the first inning and an RBI-single in the second off starter John Candelaria...Hit a solo homer in the fourth and a grand slam in the fifth off reliever Alan Fowlkes...Flied deep to center and walked in his final two plate appearances to finish the day 4x5.

1984

- Led the American League with a .410 on-base percentage and 19 game-winning RBI while leading the majors in walks.
- Won his third straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award at first base.
- Finished eighth in the American League in batting, ninth in homers, fifth in RBI, and ninth in total bases.
- Played every inning of every game during the season.
- Hit safely in a career-high 22 straight games from August 17-September 10, batting .442 (34x77) during the streak with five homers and 20 RBI.

1983

- Helped Baltimore win the World Series by leading the club in average, homers and RBI.
- Scored a career-high 115 runs to finish second in the American League...Also was third in the junior circuit in slugging and game-winning RBI, fourth in homers and total bases and fifth in RBI.
- Hit a pair of homers in the decisive fifth game of the World Series off Philadelphia pitcher Charlie Hudson.
- Won his second straight AL Rawlings Gold Glove Award at first base.
- Finished second in the AL MVP Award voting to teammate Cal Ripken, Jr. with 290 votes (Ripken-322)...It was the closest he has ever come to winning the MVP Award despite finishing in the top 10 in voting eight times in his career and in the top five a total of five times (fifth-1981, second-1982 & 1983, fourth-1984, fifth-1985).

1982

- Led the Orioles in average, homers and RBI and set a club record with 20 game-winning RBI.
- Won his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award at first base.
- Earned American League Player of the Month honors in April after hitting .441 with five homers and 17 RBI in 18 games to begin the year.
- Finished second in AL MVP Award voting to Milwaukee's Robin Yount (385 votes to 228 votes).

1981

- Led the American League in RBI and tied for the league lead in homers in the strike-shortened season.
- Also finished second in the AL with a .534 slugging percentage and fifth in total bases while tieing for the major league lead with two grand slams.

Career Transactions

- Selected by A's in fifth round of June, 1982 Free Agent Draft.
- Acquired by Brewers on March 30, 1986 along with infielder Steve Kiefer and pitchers Mike Fulmer and Pete Kendrick in exchange for pitcher Moose Haas.
- Acquired by Mets on August 31, 1990 along with a player to be named later in exchange for two players to be named later. The Mets sent pitchers Kevin Brown and Julio Machado to the Brewers and received pitcher Kevin Carmody.

The Big Inning

The biggest inning in Mets history? It's the 10-run bombardment that they unleashed against the Cincinnati Reds in the sixth inning at Shea on June 12, 1979. It was the keynote in a 12-6 victory.

The inning featured five hits and two Reds' errors as the Mets victimized three Cincinnati pitchers (Bill Bonham, Manny Sarmiento and Dave Tomlin) during the record assault.

Key hits during the inning were Frank Taveras' two-run double, Richie Hebner's two-run single, and Doug Flynn's three-run, inside-the-park home run. The Mets went into the inning trailing, 5-2...and came out of it with a 12-5 lead.

1992

- His season with the Mets was interrupted by two stays on the disabled list because of inflammation of the index finger on his right hand.
- Lost his National League debut on April 7 in St. Louis, allowing seven runs on nine hits in 2.1 innings.
- Record stood at 0-2 with a 13.15 ERA after his first three starts (April 18) before beginning stretch of allowing just four earned runs in 53.0 innings (0.68 ERA) between April 18-July 21.
- Included in that stretch was 26 straight scoreless innings between April 18-May 4, the longest streak by a Mets pitcher in 1992 and the second-longest scoreless streak of his career.
- Tossed a three-hit shutout against the Astros on April 29, winning 1-0... It was his 11th career three-hitter to join his five two-hitters, six four-hitters and one no-hitter.
- Was 3-2 and had given up just three earned runs in 42.0 innings (0.64 ERA) when he first suffered the injury on May 15 in Los Angeles, leaving his start after five innings...After inflammation did not subside, he was placed on the DL on May 19, retro to May 16.
- Received two cortisone shots and returned to active roster on July 18... Made three starts, going 0-1 with a 3.75 ERA (5 ER/12.0 IP) before inflammation forced him back on disabled list on August 4, retro to August 2.
- Mets had a 21-15 record at time of first disablement, were 22-32 without him during first DL trip...Club was 13-20 during his second stay on list.
- Activated from DL again on September 7.
- Appeared in relief on September 11 at Montreal and in Chicago on September 14, his first stints in the bullpen since April 16, 1989.
- Returned to the starting rotation on September 19 versus Montreal and made four starts during the final month of the year...Worked eight innings in each of his last three starts, allowing just four runs in 24.0 innings (1.50 ERA) although he was 0-1 with two no-decisions during the stretch.
- Had a pair of starts against St. Louis in which he tossed at least eight shutout innings (April 23 and September 24) without a decision...Mets won 1-0 in 13 innings on April 23 and lost 4-3 in 14 innings (0-0 thru 13) on September 24.
- Allowed two-or-less runs in 10 of his final 12 starts.

IN THE MAJORS

- Capped a fine campaign with his first career no-hitter against Manager Jeff Torborg's Chicago White Sox on August 26...Struck out five and walked two in the 7-0 win, one of seven official 1991 no-hitters and the first no-hitter by a Royals pitcher since May 14, 1977 (Jim Colborn)...It was the fourth no-hitter in Royals history and only the third at Royals Stadium.
- Tied for the Royals club lead in wins while leading K.C. with a 3.07 ERA, the 10th-best ERA in the AL....It was the fourth time in his career that he had led or tied for the K.C. club lead in wins (also in 1985, 1987 and 1989).

- Given the nod on Opening Day for the third time in his career, earning the win over Cleveland on April 8.
- Was 5-0 with a 2.30 ERA in six starts in May to earn Royals Pitcher of the Month honors...Earned his 100th career victory with a complete game, 2-1, triumph at Milwaukee on May 10.
- Captured his 1000th career strikeout on May 31 vs. Minnesota's Greg Gagne.
- Was on the disabled list from June 13-July 12 with tendinitis in his right rotator cuff.
- Named Royals Pitcher of the Month again in August after compiling a 3-1 record and 0.88 ERA (four earned runs in 41.0 innings)...It was the 13th time in his career he was named Royals Pitcher of the Month.
- Fanned a season-high 11 batters in another three-hit complete game at Seattle on September 22...Has had eight career double-digit strikeout contests.
- Ended his Royals career fourth in wins (110), tied for fourth in losses (78), fifth in ERA (3.21), eighth in appearances (252), fourth in starts (226), third in complete games (64), tied for third in shutouts (14), fourth in innings pitched (1660.1) and second in strikeouts (1093).

1990

- Was the winning pitcher in the 61st Annual All-Star Game, tossing two perfect innings of relief in the American League's 2-0 victory at Wrigley Field.
- Named Royals Pitcher of the Month in May after compiling a 3-1 record with a 2.53 ERA in six starts...Included in that stretch were three straight complete games victories (May 18, 23 & 28).
- Won his fourth straight start on June 2...Had a 1.32 ERA (five earned runs in 34.0 innings) during the win streak, lowering his season ERA from 3.83 to 2.75.
- Placed on the 21-day disabled list on July 16 and underwent arthroscopic surgery on July 23 to remove two small bone fragments in his right elbow... The surgery was performed by Royals' Team Physician Dr. Steve Joyce.
- Activated from the DL on September 10 and made two more starts on the season.

1989

- Won his second American League Cy Young Award after leading the majors in wins, ERA, complete games, innings pitched, winning percentage and base runners allowed per nine innings.
- Captured 27 of 28 first-place votes for the award, also picking up one second-place vote...Became just the ninth pitcher in baseball history to win more than one Cy Young Award.
- Also named as Royals' Pitcher of the Year, The Sporting News' AL Pitcher of the Year and the AL Consort Control Pitcher of the Year.
- Won his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top AL fielding pitcher.
- Also finished in the top 10 in the AL in games started, strikeouts, shutouts, and opponents' average.

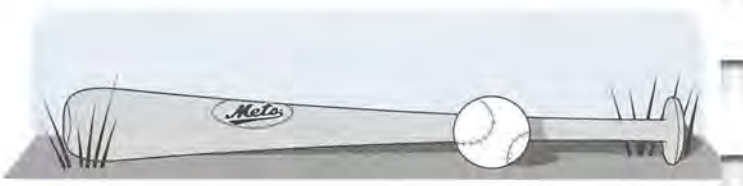
- Set career bests in wins, ERA, appearances, innings pitched and strikeouts while matching his career highs in starts and shutouts...His 23 victories also established a Kansas City club record.
- Won a career-high eight straight games from July 26-August 31 and won 20 of his final 22 decisions starting with a win on May 24...Was 15-2 with a 1.74 ERA after the All-Star break.
- Struck out a career-high 13 batters at Oakland on September 30.
- Named American League Pitcher of the Month in August after winning a club-record seven games in the month with a 1.58 ERA...Named Royals Pitcher of the Month in July, August and September (6-1 with a 0.98 ERA).
- Tossed a club-record 31.0 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run from September 17-26.
- Allowed eight earned runs over his final 80.0 innings for a 0.90 ERA.

- Finished fifth in the American League in innings pitched and 10th in the league in strikeouts... Both totals were career bests at the time. 1988
- Started on Opening Day for the Royals on April 4, but lost a 5-3 decision to Toronto after allowing an Opening Day record three home runs to George Bell.

- Named American League Comeback Player of the Year after finishing with an 18-10 record and 3.36 ERA. 1987
- Ranked fourth in the AL in ERA, tied for fourth in wins, ninth in innings pitched, tied for second in complete games and second with four shutouts.
- Was tabbed as the starting pitcher in the All-Star Game in Oakland, the first Royals pitcher to start the classic... Tossed three scoreless innings, allowing one hit and no walks or strikeouts.
- Was 15-3 with a 2.47 ERA at the All-Star break.
- Won his first six decisions of the year not suffering his first setback until May 14... Tossed a pair of two-hitters in the streak, taking no-hitters into the seventh inning in both contests, vs. the Yankees on April 10 and at Cleveland on May 9.
- Named American League Pitcher of the Month in April after going 4-0 with a 1.32 ERA in four starts.
- Reeled off another six straight wins from May 19-June 17 with three complete games and a shutout in the streak.
- Won his 10th game of the year on June 4 vs. Seattle in his 11th start to become the quickest Royals pitcher to win 10 games in a season.

- Bothered all season by a sore right shoulder and right foot. 1986
- Earned two wins in the first two months of the year, both by shutout... Blanked the Red Sox, 1-0, on two hits at Boston on April 16 while shutting out Baltimore on May 2, 5-0.
- Had a 6-10 record when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 12 (retroactive to August 10) with stiffness and soreness in his right shoulder.
- Did not pitch again until September 6.
- Was 1-0 with a 1.86 ERA (two earned runs in 9.2 innings) in five relief outings.

- Became the first Royals pitcher and the third-youngest pitcher ever to win the Cy Young Award at age 21 (behind Dwight Gooden at age 20 and Fernando Valenzuela also at age 21). 1985
- Won his 20th game on September 30 at age 21 years, 5 months and 19 days old to become the fifth-youngest pitcher in baseball history to win 20 contests... Defeated the Angels, 3-1, that day to win his 20th.



- Finished second in the AL in wins and winning percentage (.769) and third in ERA.
- Named AL Pitcher of the Month in July with a 5-1 record and a 2.05 ERA.
- Won 18 of his final 21 decisions starting with a 3-0 shutout over Milwaukee on May 17...Included in the streak were seven straight wins from July 23-September 2.
- Tossed a career-high 10.0 innings on August 19 vs. Detroit in defeating Jack Morris and the Tigers, 2-1.
- Won both of his World Series starts vs. St. Louis with a 0.50 ERA, allowing just one run and 11 hits in 18.0 innings with 10 strikeouts.
- Became both a father and World Series MVP within a span of 36 hours... Named World Series MVP after shutting out the Cards, 11-0, in the deciding seventh game of the Series...Son, Drew, was born two days later.

- Became the youngest Kansas City player to appear in a game on April 4 vs. the Yankees... Worked 4.2 innings of three-hit relief that day at age 19 years, 11 months and 24 days... Three days later, Mets rookie Dwight Gooden made his major league debut. 1984
- Earned his first big league victory in his first start on April 19 at Detroit, 5-2.
- Posted his first shutout on September 24, blanking the Angels on three hits, 4-0.
- Picked up his only save in the majors on July 23 vs. Toronto.
- Became the youngest starting pitcher in LCS history (20 years old) when he started Game Two vs. Detroit on October 3...Had no decision in the Tigers 5-3, 11-innings win, working eight innings while allowing six hits, and three runs (two earned).

PETE SCHOUREK

Postion: Lefthanded Pitcher
Height: 6-5 Weight:205
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Opening Day Age: 23
Birthdate: May 10, 1969
Birthplace: Austin, TX
Resides: Falls Church, VA
Major League Service: 1 years, 118 days
Signed By: Rob Guzik
How Obtained: Selected by Mets in third round of June, 1987 Free Agent Draft.
Contract Status: Signed through 1993.
Family: Single

- Had a solid year with the Mets, performing most of his work in the 1992 starting rotation (22 appearances, 21 starts).
- Began year on 25-man roster but was optioned to Tidewater on April 6.
- Was 2-5 with a 2.73 ERA in eight starts with the Tides, including a pair of complete games and one shutout.
- Ranked 11th in International League in ERA at time of call-up.
- Recalled by New York on May 23 and started against Reds on May 25...Gave up just one run on five hits in six innings that night but lost, 3-0.
- Also fell by 3-0 count in next start (June 13), his fourth straight start (including Tidewater) where his team was shut out...All told, his squads didn't score when he was pitching from May 9-June 23.
- Gave up one-or-less runs in six of first seven starts but was just 1-3 with three no-decisions and 2.11 ERA on July 5.
- Picked up victory in relief of Bret Saberhagen on August 1 (Game 1) at Shea, working five scoreless frames in a 3-0 New York win.
- Mets scored a total of 10 runs in his eight losses and tallied just five runs with Pete still in game.
- Worked a season-best eight innings on five occasions, allowing two-or-less runs in all five of the starts without picking up a win in any of the games.
- Was 5-3 with a 2.89 ERA in 14 appearances (13 starts) at home.

IN THE MAJORS

- Made the Mets 25-man roster out of spring training after co-winning (with 1991 Doug Simons) the John J. Murphy Award for the top rookie in camp.
- Pitched 1.1 scoreless innings vs. Philadelphia on April 9 in his major league debut, striking out Dale Murphy for his first big league victim.
- Picked up his first major league save by working three innings at Montreal on April 21 while allowing six hits and three runs with a walk and strikeout.
- Earned his first big league win three days later, on April 24, by pitching three scoreless innings in relief at Philadelphia.
- Had a 2-2 record in 16 appearances when he was optioned to Tidewater on June 4... Was recalled back to New York on June 20.
- Hurled 5.2 scoreless innings of three-hit relief vs. Philadelphia on June 28, the longest relief stint of the 1991 season by a Met pitcher.
- Optioned back to Tidewater on July 18 and was recalled on July 30.
- Made his first major league start that night, giving up just a three-run, first-inning homer to Kal Daniels in a 3-1 loss to the Dodgers...The three runs were unearned while Pete struck out a then, season-best eight batters.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout vs. Montreal on September 10, allowing just a fifth-inning single by Kenny Williams...Walked two and struck out seven in tossing one of three Mets one-hitters on the year, the 18th in Mets history, and the first by a rookie since September 7, 1984 (Dwight Gooden).

- Registered a career-high 10 strikeouts in a 6-4 win vs. the Phillies on September 27, giving up two runs on four hits in 6.1 innings...It was the most strikeouts by a Mets rookie southpaw since Jerry Koosman fanned 12 vs. St. Louis on July 21, 1968.

IN THE MINORS

- Had a combined 16-5 record and a 2.57 ERA for three farm teams, St. Lucie (A) of the Florida State League, Jackson (AA) of the Texas League and Tidewater (AAA) of the International League.
- Began the year with St. Lucie and sent to Tidewater for two starts (April 30-May 8)...Returned to St. Lucie for one more start and then went to Jackson on May 11 for the rest of the year.
- Finished fourth in the Texas League with his 3.04 ERA...Also was tied for third with his 11 wins.
- Named to the Mid-Season All-Star Game.
- Captured his last four starts for St. Lucie and won his first eight decisions for Jackson for a personal 12-game winning streak.
- Didn't suffer his first loss with Jackson until July 16...Had been 8-0 with two no-decisions before the defeat.

1989

- Missed the entire season because of a left elbow injury...Underwent surgery on the ulnar nerve of his left elbow in August.

Two Wins in One Day

Three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson in 1962, Willard Hunter in 1964 and Jesse Orosco in 1983—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12,1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds 3-2 and 8-7 with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23,1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of no-hit shutout relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31 ,1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins; 7-6 and 1-0.

Inside the Park Homers

The Mets have hit only 17 inside-the-park homers in their 31-year existence, the most recent coming on June 26, 1990 by Kevin Elster in St. Louis against Cards pitcher Bryn Smith...Only five of these roundtrippers have come at Shea while the team also had three at the spacious Polo Grounds...The Mets all-time leader in inside-the-park homers is also the club's career homer leader, Darryl Strawberry, with two.

1992

- Moved into the bullpen fulltime on July 1.
- Began season in starting rotation and picked up his first career complete game with a six-hitter at St. Louis on April 9, giving up just an unearned run with no walks and three strikeouts in a 7-1 Mets win.
- Won in relief on April 19 in Montreal, working 3.1 innings of one-hit ball as Mets rallied for 11-6 victory.
- Began a frustrating losing streak on May 6 that would last the rest of the season, dropping 14 straight games, the longest streak in the major leagues since Seattle pitcher Mike Parrott dropped 16 straight games in 1980.
- The streak was the longest by a Mets pitcher since Roger Craig lost a club record 18 in-a-row in 1963.
- Record stood at 2-9 with a 4.65 ERA on June 30 before he moved to fill bullpen closer role when John Franco suffered elbow stiffness.
- Earned first save on July 1 in Chicago, working scoreless 12th inning in a 6-4 New York triumph.
- Converted his first 12 save opportunities successfully in a two-month streak between July 1-September 1...Had a 0.85 ERA (3 ER/31.2 IP) over the two months while giving up just 19 hits and eight walks with 14 strikeouts.
- Included in the two months was a career-best 23.2 consecutive scoreless innings streak between July 7-August 28 (Game One).
- Lowered his season ERA from 4.70 to 3.58 while allowing just one run in 28.2 innings from July 7-September 1.
- Picked up 15th save of year on September 22 to tie John Franco for club lead... Became first rookie to lead or tie for Mets lead in saves since Roger McDowell (1985).
- Ended the year with a 1-7 record as a starter with a 4.81 ERA (39 ER/73.0 IP) and a 1-7 mark in relief with a 3.19 ERA (17 ER/48.0 IP).
- Had best success during daytime, going 2-2 with a 3.16 ERA (11 ER/31.1 IP) during the afternoons with five saves...Has a 3-5 lifetime mark with a 2.98 ERA (20 ER/60.1 IP) during the day.

1991

The Day It Rained Homers

On June 11, 1967 at Wrigley Field, the Mets and Chicago Cubs combined to put on one of the greatest slugging exhibitions in baseball history. In the second game of a doubleheader, the two clubs slammed a total of 11 home runs—tying a major league mark for the most homers by two teams—as the Cubs won, 18-10.

Adolfo Phillips belted three homers in the game for Chicago (off Jack Lamabe in the third inning, Chuck Estrada in the fifth and Don Shaw in the sixth), while Randy Hundley added a pair of four-baggers. Ron Santo and Ernie Banks also homered for the Cubs. Ron Swoboda, Jerry Buchek, Jerry Grote and Bob Johnson all connected for New York...with Buchek's, Grote's and Johnson's blasts all coming in the ninth inning.

For added measure, Phillips (who had four on the day) and New York's Tommy Davis homered in the first game—a 5-3 Chicago win—for a grand total of 13 homers for the doubleheader!

- His five innings of work against the Cubs at Shea on June 25 matched the longest stint by a Mets reliever during the season... Pete Schourek also went five innings in the first game of an August 1 doubleheader vs. Chicago at home. 1992
- Started against the Cubs at Wrigley on September 15...It marked his first starting assignment after 183 straight appearances out of the bullpen... Not involved in the Mets' 4-2 win, a game that was rained out after 7.1 innings...Went 4.2 innings and gave up six hits, two runs, earned, with a walk and one strikeout.
- Placed on the disabled list on July 31, retroactive to July 28, with left shoulder stiffness.
- Pitched in two rehabilitation assignments with Tidewater of the International League, allowing three hits and one run in three innings with two walks and a strikeout.
- His only decision of the year was a 6-1 loss at Cincinnati on September 6... In 3.1 innings, he gave up four hits, two runs, earned, with one walk and a season-high four strikeouts...Also struck out four vs. the Braves at Shea on May 30.
- Went three-or-more innings in a game eight times.
- Didn't allow a run in seven straight games (six innings) from May 4-13.

IN THE MAJORS

- His 68 appearances were a career high and tied him for eighth in the American League in games...It was also the sixth-highest game total in Detroit history. 1991
- Also, his 96 innings ranked third among AL relievers.
- Tied with Chicago's Scott Radinsky and Milwaukee's Dan Plesac for the league lead in saves among lefthanded pitchers.
- Finished up the year on a strong note...Only gave up two earned runs in his last 11.2 innings (11 games).
- His longest outing of the year was four innings (May 4 vs. Texas and August 14 vs. Chicago).

- Set a then career high with 61 appearances. 1990
- From May 10-July 1, he allowed two earned runs in 27.1 innings (0.66 ERA) over 21 appearances...Went 13 consecutive outings without giving up a run from May 10-June 8.

- Divided the season between the bullpen and the starting rotation. 1989
- Had a 1-5 record and a 4.66 ERA (40 earned runs in 77.1 innings) in 13 starts...Was 3-3 with a 4.61 ERA (28 earned runs in 54.2 innings) in 32 relief outings.
- His lone win as a starter was 4-2 over Kansas City at home on May 21... Allowed two runs on eight hits in 6.1 innings.
- Went a career-best 10 innings at California on July 22...Not involved in the Angels' 5-4 win.

- Named to the Topps All-Rookie Team. 1988
- Also picked as the Tigers' Rookie of The Year by the Detroit Baseball Writer's Association.
- Made his major league debut in the season's first game, April 8 in Kansas City...In 1.1 innings, he allowed no runs and no hits with two walks and a strikeout.
- His first big league victory came on April 30, a 4-3, 12-inning win at Seattle ... Worked one inning with no runs, one hit and one strikeout.
- His first major league start and only start of the year was May 17 in Milwaukee...Was an 8-4 winner...In seven innings, he permitted seven hits, three runs, two earned, with one walk and two strikeouts.

IN THE MINORS

- Led the International League in victories and was third in games started... Had two shutouts and seven complete games. 1987
- Pitched a seven-inning one-hitter at Columbus in game one of a Southern League (AA) doubleheader on September 1. 1985
- Named to the Southern League's All-Star Team. 1982

1992 METS MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

TIDEWATER

Manager Clint Hurdle saw his Tidewater Tides struggle to a 56-86 record with a team that was decimated by injuries and mid-season call-ups to New York...Sixteen different Tides were called up during the season by the Mets and Hurdle used 46 players overall during the year...Individually, Jeff McKnight led the Tides in batting (.307-fourth in IL) while Doubleday winner Steve Springer topped the club in homers (16) and RBI (70) and batted .290...Randy Marshall (7-13, 4.04 ERA) was the club's lone representative in the Triple A All-Star Game...Lefty Eric Hillman was 9-2 with a 3.65 ERA before his promotion by the Mets.

BINGHAMTON

Steve Swisher's Eastern League Champions made it a joyous season for fans in the Binghamton region, who saw baseball return to their city after a 24-year absence... After leading the league for most of the regular season, the Mets finished in second place with a 79-59 record and then defeated Harrisburg and Canton-Akron to win the EL title...Eastern League pitcher of the Year Bobby Jones (12-4, league-leading 1.88 ERA, 144 strikeouts) led the way for the Mets, including winning the championship game against Canton-Akron...Jones also was named Binghamton's Doubleday Winner, and the top prospect in the league by Baseball America...Joe Vitko (12-8, 3.49 ERA), Todd Douma (8-8, 2.82 ERA) and John Johnstone (7-7, 3.74 ERA, 121 strikeouts) helped to form the league's top rotation...Brook Fordyce (.278, 11 homers, 61 RBI), Alan Zinter (16 HR, 50 RBI), Chris Butterfield (14 HR, 51 RBI) and Curtis Pride (10 HR, 42 RBI) led the hitting attack.

ST. LUCIE

Manager John Tamargo guided the Mets to an overall 74-62 record, including a 39-28 record in the second half of the year and the East Division title...The Mets lost in the first round of the playoffs, two games to one, to Osceola... Second baseman Fernando Vina, the club's Doubleday Award winner, led St. Lucie in batting (.295) and stolen bases (36)...The team's power supply was provided by the one-two punch of third baseman Butch Huskey (.254, 18 homers, 75 RBI) and first baseman Frank Jacobs (.249, 12 homers, 55 RBI)...Juan Castillo was 11-8 with a 2.58 ERA in 24 starts while Jose Martinez had a 2.05 ERA and 114 strikeouts and just 11 walks in 123 innings before a promotion to Double A.

COLUMBIA

Despite boasting the South Atlantic League's best overall winning percentage of .572 (79-59), Manager Tim Blackwell's Mets just missed making the post-season, finishing second in both halves of the season...Doubleday winner, Quilvio Veras, led the SAL in batting (.319) and stolen bases (66) while also recording 36 extra-base hits... Centerfielder Ricky Otero hit .300 in 96 games before a promotion to St. Lucie and finished the year with a combined .306 average with 48 extra-base hits, 79 RBI and 48 steals... First baseman Omar Garcia hit .290 with 70 RBI and 35 steals...Brad Schorr led all pitchers with 12 wins.

KINGSPORT

Andre David directed the Mets to a 27-35 record and fourth place in the South Division in the Appalachian League...Al Shirley, the Mets top pick in the 1991 draft, hit .313 with seven homers and 22 RBI in 29 games before breaking his wrist in a base-running accident that finished his season...The 18-year-old outfielder was named the league's top prospect by Baseball America...Eric Harris led Kingsport with 11 homers and 45 RBI...Don White was the Doubleday winner after hitting .303 with four homers, 27 RBI and 24 steals...Chris Berg had 10 saves and a 1.96 ERA out of the bullpen.

PITTSFIELD

Manager Jim Thrift led the Mets to a 37-37 record and second place in the McNamara Division in the New York-Penn League...Doubleday winner Ed Alfonzo led the NYPL in batting at a .356 clip while topping the circuit with 106 hits (in 74 games), just one shy of the league record...The 19-year-old shortstop was named the league's fourth-best prospect...Bill Pulsipher was 6-3 with a 2.84 ERA in 14 starts...1992 draft selection Jim Popoff set a league record with 19 strikeouts in a game on June 29 at Batavia.

GULF COAST METS

Manager Junior Roman skippered the Mets to a 29-30 record and third place in the Eastern Division in the Gulf Coast League...Outfielder Rafael Guerrero hit .278 with a homer and 36 RBI and was picked as the team's Doubleday Award winner... Randy Warner hit .260 with a club-leading three homers and 38 RBI...Reliever Robert Carr was 5-0 with 1.99 ERA while lefty Rafael Roque was 3-1 with a 2.14 ERA and eight saves.

Long Scoreless Streaks

The club record for consecutive shutout innings is 42, held by the 1969 World Champions from September 23-28 as they were gearing up for the playoffs...Included in that streak was six shutout frames vs. St. Louis on the 23rd, a complete game victory by Gary Gentry over the Cards on the 24th, complete game wins by Jerry Koosman and Tom Seaver in Philadelphia on the 26th and 27th and a 2-0 victory over the Phillies on the 28th...Just a few weeks earlier, the same Mets pitching staff had tossed 36 straight shutout innings from September 10-13...The longest the Mets have ever been held scoreless is 39, set from September 11-15, 1963.

New Kids On the Block

The Mets will be part of baseball history on April 5 when they host the first-ever game featuring the expansion Colorado Rockies. New York was involved in the last NL expansion debut, hosting the Montreal Expos in their initial game on April 8, 1969 (San Diego played Houston that same day). Montreal won that contest 11-10 as Expos rightfielder Rusty Staub hit a solo homer and scored three runs.

The 108 Club

The 1986 Mets became one of only nine teams in modern (post-1900) baseball history to win as many as 108 games in a season. Here's the listing of the 108 club:

116-36 Cubs, 1906
111-43 Indians, 1954
110-42 Pirates, 1909
110-44 Yankees, 1927
109-53 Orioles, 1969
109-53 Yankees, 1961
108-54 Orioles, 1970
108-54 Reds, 1975
108-54 Mets, 1986

Self-Support

In the entire 31-year history of the club, only twice has a Mets pitcher belted a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt .45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton belted a bases-loaded blast at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets' 11- 9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

1-0 Games

The Mets have an all-time record of 79-83 in games that have ended with 1-0 scores, including a 4-2 mark in 1992...The most 1-0 wins the Mets have had in any season were in 1969, when the club went 9-5... Perhaps the most memorable 1-0 game came on April 15, 1968 when the Mets and Astros went 23 scoreless innings before Houston pushed across the winning run on an infield error...In that game, Mets starting pitcher Tom Seaver retired 25 straight batters between the second and 10th innings while tossing 10 innings of two-hit ball.

The Perfect Mets

Ray Searage's Met career consisted of 26 appearances as a relief pitcher in 1981. He had a 1.000 winning percentage (1-0) and one save, and a 1.000 batting average, singling in his only at-bat. He, Dave Liddell, who was 1-1 in 1990, and Rodney McCray, who was 1-1 in 1992, are the only Met batters never to make an out.

Eight For Eight

The Mets' club record for the most hits in consecutive official at-bats is eight, set by Jerry Grote in 1970 and matched by Keith Hernandez in 1985. Grote's streak began on July 7, 1970, when he had singles in each of his last three at-bats against the Cards. He went 4-for-4 against St. Louis on July 8, and got his eighth straight hit in his first at-bat against the Expos on July 9. The streak stopped when Jerry grounded to third against Rich Nye in the third inning of the July 9 game against Montreal. Hernandez began his streak on October 3, 1985, going 5-for-5 at St. Louis. He went 3-for-3 (along with an intentional walk) the next night, October 4, against the Expos at Shea. Keith was stopped at 8-for-8 when he struck out against Floyd Youmans in the first inning on October 5 against Montreal at Shea.

METS HIGHLIGHTS . . . YEAR-BY-YEAR

(40-120, 60 1/2 GB, 10th in NL, MGR: Stengel)

A year of firsts as Mets join NL along with Houston Colt .45s to bring NL baseball back to New York after departure of Giants and Dodgers in 1957 . . . First game is 11-4 loss to St. Louis on April 11, first home game at historic Polo Grounds is 4-3 loss to Pirates on April 13. . . After losing first nine games, Stengel's troops chalk up first victory ever on April 23, as Jay Hook goes all the way on a five-hitter to beat Pirates, 9-1, at Forbes Field.

Mets endure club record 17-game losing streak May 21-June 6 . . . Marvelous Marv Throneberry acquired from Orioles May 9 . . . Mets victimized by Sandy Koufax no-hitter at LA, June 30 . . . NL's largest crowd of year, 54,360, packs Polo Grounds for twin bill vs. Dodgers May 30, day in which Mets pull their first-ever triple play.

GM George Weiss builds Original Mets around well-known veterans . . . Frank Thomas belts 34 homers, (club record until 1975) and knocks in 94 runs. . . Richie Ashburn leads regulars with .306 average . . . Roger Craig (10-24) and Al Jackson (8-20) are bulwarks of starting staff . . . Yale's Ken MacKenzie (5-4) only pitcher with winning record . . . New Yorkers take club to heart, as Mets draw 922,530 to Polo Grounds.

(51-111, 48 1/2 GB, 10th in NL, MGR: Stengel)

Mets draw 1,080,108 in second and final year at Polo Grounds . . . Club boasts rookie keystone combo of second baseman Ron Hunt and shortstop Al Moran . . . Craig endures club record 18-game losing streak, broken on August 9 when Jim Hickman's grand slam in the ninth gives Mets a 7-3 win over Cubs . . . Hickman becomes first Met to hit for cycle August 7 . . . First Met-Yankee Mayor's Trophy Game won by Mets, 6-2 at Yankee Stadium June 20 . . . Gooden goes 5-0 in September to win Pitcher of the Month honors . . . The Mets lead the league in road victories, home runs, grand slams, runs scored, strikeouts and shutouts.

(77-84, 20.5 GB, 5th in NL East, MGRS: Harrelson [74-80], Cubbage [3-4])

Club falls to fifth in NL East to snap seven year streak of first or second place finish . . . Still, season has plenty of individual highlights, led by Johnson's club record and league leading 117 RBI and his NL topping 38 homers, 76 extra-base hits and 15 sacrifice flies . . . Johnson also ties the Mets club mark with 108 runs scored . . . He joins the 30-30 club for third time in career (30 steals), becoming second major leaguer (Bobby Bonds, five times) to join club more than twice . . . Mark Carreon sets club mark with his eighth career pinch-hit homer as he connects for three ph-homers on year . . . Mets win 10 straight games from July 1-13, but lose 11 straight from August 9-21 (Game #1) . . . Final game of year on October 6 in Philadelphia is memorable as Cone ties NL and Mets record with 19 strikeouts . . . Cone captures NL strikeout crown (241 Ks) for second straight year . . . He also tosses one-hit shutout on September 20 vs. St. Louis and combines with Jeff Innis in one-hit loss on September 14 at St. Louis . . . Rookie Pete Schourek one-hits the Expos on September 10 . . . Off-season is busy as Al Harazin succeeds Cashen as GM after season and hires 1990 AL Manager of Year, Jeff Torborg, to four-year contract as Mets manager . . . Mets sign free agents Bobby Bonilla (December 2) and Eddie Murray (November 27)and make blockbuster trade, sending McReynolds, Jefferies and Keith Miller to Royals for two-time Cy Young winner Bret Saberhagen and infielder Bill Pecota on December 11.

(72-90, 24 GB, 5th in NL East, MGR: Torborg

A second straight fifth-place finish for the Mets during an injury-riddled season . . . The team uses the disabled list a team-record 18 times surpassing the old mark of 11 (1979 and 87) . . . A total of 14 different Mets serve time on the DL, including eight players on the list from August 3-8 . . . Murray leads team in most offensive categories, including RBI (93) and games played (156) . . . It's his 16th straight season with at least 75 RBI, an ML record for the start of a career . . . He also passes several other milestones, including his 400th homer on May 2, and his 1,500th RBI on May 23 . . . Innis sets a club mark with 76 appearances . . . Dick Schofield becomes the first Met to lead the league's shortstops in fielding with a .988 percentage.

The Big Comeback

Come-from-behind wins have always been a big part of Mets history. But the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings and rallied for an 11-8 victory...On that historic day in Houston, the Mets entered the top of the eighth inning with no runs and just four hits but proceeded to send 12 men to the plate in a seven-run frame with the big blow being a three-run homer by Ken Boswell... Still down by one run entering the ninth, the Mets again batted around and pushed four runs across for the winning margin...Cleon Jones' two-RBI double was the deciding blow for the Mets.

MEDIA

METS RADIO-TV COVERAGE

WWOR-TV, Channel 9, the Mets' TV outlet since the club's inception in 1962, will televise 75 games in 1993. Ralph Kiner and Tim McCarver call the action.

SportsChannel, a pay-television outlet serving the tri-state metropolitan area, will cablecast 75 games. Kiner, Fran Healy and Rusty Staub will call the plays.

WFAN Radio 660 will air all 162 regular season games for the 11th straight year. Bob Murphy and Gary Cohen call the play-by-play action. Todd Kalas is in his second year as host of pre- and post-game shows.

BOB MURPHY

- Bob Murphy, who like Ralph Kiner, has been with the team since its inception in 1962, begins his 32nd year of broadcasting New York Mets games.
- Murphy joined the Mets for the inaugural 1962 season after broadcasting for the Boston Red Sox (1954-59) and Baltimore Orioles (1960-61).
- In addition to baseball, he also has broadcast six Orange Bowl games and five Gator Bowl contests.
- Bob is the younger brother of the late Jack Murphy, the renowned columnist for the San Diego Union and the man for whom Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego is named.
- Both Kiner and Murphy, along with Lindsey Nelson (who broadcast Mets baseball from 1962-78) were elected to the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.
- Makes his off-season home in Palm Beach Gardens, FL with his wife Joye.

RALPH KINER

- Ralph Kiner joined the newborn Mets in 1962 after a storied 10-year playing career that earned him election to the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y in 1975.
- Ralph belted 369 homers during his career with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and Cleveland Indians. He won or shared the National League home run crown for seven straight seasons.
- With the Pirates in 1949, Ralph hit 54 homers, knocked in 127 runs and batted .310. The next year, he hit 47 homers and drove in 118 runs for the Bucs. Some of Kiner's other home run feats include belting 13 grand slams, hitting two or more homers on 34 occasions, cracking three homers in a game three different times and slamming five homers in two consecutive games (accomplished twice).
- For his career, Ralph played in 1,472 games and had 5,205 at-bats, 971 runs, 1,451 hits, 216 doubles, 39 triples, 369 homers, 1,015 RBI and a lifetime batting average of .279. He was traded to the Cubs in 1953, and a chronic sciatica problem ended his playing days at Cleveland in 1955.
- After his retirement, Kiner was the General Manager of the Pacific Coast League's San Diego Padres, and also did announcing for the Chicago White Sox with the legendary Bob Elson before joining the Mets.
- Kiner's first 25 years with the Mets were captured in his autobiography, "Kiner's Korner: At Bat and On The Air–My 40 Years in Baseball." His uniform number 4 was retired in the summer of 1987 in ceremonies at Pittsburgh.
- On February 3, 1990, he received the William Slocum Award for Long and Meritorious Service at the New York Baseball Writer's Dinner.
- Ralph lives with his wife DiAnn in Greenwich, CT and they make their off-season home in Palm Desert, CA.

TIM McCARVER

- Tim McCarver, who starred behind the plate for 21 big league seasons is entering his 11th year as a Mets' announcer. He began his major league career with the Cardinals in 1959, and is one of only seven modern-day players to perform in four decades.
- McCarver was with St. Louis from 1959-69. Tim, a native of Memphis, spent two-and-a-half years with the Phillies, a half season with Montreal, two more seasons with the Cards, two with the Red Sox and six more years (1975-80) with the Phillies again.
- McCarver, 51, played in three World Series with the Cardinals, hitting .478 with a homer and five RBI in the 1964 classic against the Yankees. He also participated in three NL Championship Series with the Phillies from 1976-78, and All-Star Games in 1966 and 1967. He scored the winning run in the bottom of the 10th inning in the 1966 All-Star Game in St. Louis.
- A part owner of the Memphis Chicks of the Southern League...The Chicks' home playing field was dedicated "Tim McCarver Stadium" on May 2, 1978.
- Tim announced the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary for ABC-TV, and was the network anchor for CBS-TV's Winter Olympics in Albertville, France, in 1992. He also teams with Sean McDonough on CBS-TV's Major League Baseball Game of the Week coverage, as well as the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series action.
- He and his wife Anne have two daughters, Kathy and Kelly. His book, "Oh Baby, I Love It!" was published in the spring of 1987.

GARY COHEN

- Gary Cohen, a 34-year-old Queens, NY native, is beginning his fifth year as a member of the Mets' WFAN Radio team.
- Does play-by-play for CBS Radio's Baseball Game of the Week.
- He also broadcast the Ice Hockey competition at the 1992 Winter Olympics in Albertville, France for CBS Radio.
- In 1987-88, he announced for the Boston Red Sox' Triple A Team, Pawtucket of the International League.
- Was a broadcaster for Providence College hockey and basketball 1988-89 and also announced for the Durham Bulls in the Class A, Carolina League in 1986 and for Spartanburg in the Class A, South Atlantic League in 1983-1984.
- Also worked for athletic teams at Columbia, the University of Pennsylvania, and Old Dominion University.
- Was a Dean's List student at Columbia University, where his major was Political Science.
- He lives in Brooklyn with his wife Jean and their twins, Trevor and Kira (5/11/91).

RUSTY STAUB

- Rusty Staub, who starred in the major leagues for 23 seasons, begins his eighth year as a commentator on Mets broadcasts.
- A major league regular at age 19, Rusty saw action with Houston (1963-68), Montreal (1969-71), the Mets (1972-75), Detroit (1976-79), Montreal again (1979), Texas (1980) and the Mets again (1981-85). He compiled at least 500 hits for the Astros, Expos, Mets and Tigers, and is the only man in major league history to collect at least 500 hits for four clubs.
- For his career, Staub, now 49, played in 2,951 games (seventh on the all-time list), had 9,720 at bats (17th all-time), 1,189 runs, 2,716 hits, 499 doubles, 292 homers and 1,466 RBI to go with a .279 career batting average and 100 career pinch hits. He had four 20-plus homer seasons and three 100-plus RBI seasons. His 105 RBI for the Mets in 1975 established a then-club record, which was broken by Darryl Strawberry in 1990. Rusty and the immortal Ty Cobb are the only players in history to homer both before their 20th birthdays and after their 40th.
- A member of six All-Star teams (five NL, one AL), Rusty hit .423 with a homer and six RBI for the Mets in the 1973 World Series. On the all-time Mets lists, Staub is ninth in games (942) and seventh in RBI (399).
- Was honored on "Thanks, Rusty" Day at Shea on July 13,1986 and later in the season, he and Bud Harrelson became the first players to be inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame.
- On February 2, 1991 he received the Joan Payson Award for Humanitarian Service from the New York Baseball Writers' Association.

FRAN HEALY

- Fran Healy, 46, begins his 10th season on the Mets' SportsChannel cablecasting team.
- Compiled a .250 lifetime average in 470 big league games in nine years, was a member of the New York Yankees' radio crew from 1978-80, when he joined the SportsChannel team.
- Came up with the expansion Kansas City Royals in 1969, going 4-10 (.400). Two years later, he helped the Giants win the NL West title.
- Was with the Giants again in 1972 and moved back to the Royals in 1973. He spent the last three years of his career (1976-78) with the Yankees. Fran's busiest big league season was 1974, when he appeared in 139 games for the Royals, batting .252 with nine homers and 53 RBI.
- Performed on three championship clubs, the 1971 NL West Champion Giants, the 1976 AL Champion Yankees and the 1977 World Champion Yankees.
- He and his wife Gloria live in Holyoke, Mass., with their daughters, Debbie and Kara.

TODD KALAS

- Todd Kalas begins his second season with the Mets in the role of the host of the pre- and post-game shows on WFAN radio.
- Has broadcast play-by-play at all levels of minor league baseball, most recently with the Louisville Redbirds of the American Association in 1991.
- Also covered the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Sports Director of Vision Cable of Clearwater, FL.
- A graduate of Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Communications.
- His father, Harry, has been the voice of the Philadelphia Phillies since 1971.
- Kalas, 27, is single.

SuperKQ METS SPANISH RADIO

For the fourth straight year, WSKQ (620 AM) will serve as the flagship Spanish radio station for New York Mets Baseball. Billy Berroa and Renato Morffi will do the play-by-play, while Armando Talavera and Juan Alicea will do color commentary on over 100 games.

Berroa, a native of San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic, has been broadcasting major league baseball since 1963. He also has done the All-Star Game, Playoffs, and World Series for the CBS International Spanish Radio Network the last five years.

Talavera has been involved in broadcasting major league ball since 1975. He has been producer/commentator for Mets games sent throughout Latin America in addition to being the producer of the CBS Spanish Network for the All-Star, League Championship Series, and World Series.

Alicea has been with the Mets since 1969 in a variety of community relations and scouting positions. He has been a color commentator/analyst for Mets Spanish Radio since 1982 and also serves as the project's coordinator.

Morffi enters his fourth year as a member of the Mets Spanish broadcasting team. He has vast experience as a sports announcer and writer and has been WSKQ's sports editor since 1986.

DIAMOND VISION

The Mets continue to stay on the forefront of stadium scoreboard technology with the debut last year of a new Diamond Vision video display screen at Shea.

The Diamond Vision Mark III HC, manufactured by Mitsubishi Electric Company of Japan, represents the latest generation of video screens. It occupies the same left field location as its predecessor and is 35 feet, 8 inches wide by 26 feet, 3 inches high, an increase of 12 percent in total viewing area.

Both the Diamond Vision board, and the matrix board in right center field, manufactured by the Whiteway Sign Company of Chicago, IL, are operated by the Mets Diamond Vision staff. Carlos DeMolina, Producer/Director; Lee Umphred, Associate Producer; Vito Vitiello and John Zaso, Assistant Producers, supervise the staff of 12 daily workers.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS
To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE
Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE
Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK
A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS
Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

INTER-LEAGUE AND INTRA-LEAGUE TRADES
No waivers necessary from 5 p.m., Eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through 5 p.m., Eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR"
172 days constitute a full year in the Major Leagues.

ROOKIE RULE
The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.

The Face is Familiar...

What do Johnny Kucks, Bill Hands, Wynn Hawkins, Ernie Bowman, Ron Nischwitz, Bob Cerv, Howie Nunn, Nelson Briles, Bobby Brown, Bill Greif, Dick Kenworthy, Jim Bibby, Clyde Mashore, Terry Puhl and Argenis Salazar have in common? These players – all of whom put in considerable time in the majors – appeared with the Mets in spring training but never appeared in a regular season game with New York.
